Elliott,

The lodging in Cascade Village is acceptable for the time period given the unavailability of hotel rooms in Silverton.

Subject: Lodging for Red and Bonita RV

Hi Steve,

As part of my cost reporting I need to have verification that my lodging choice for this project is acceptable. The Purgatory Resort (Cascade Village) located north of Durango (considered still in Durango) was discussed as an alternative if nothing was available in Silverton. I was unable to find lodging in Silverton for the first month of the field work this summer, we will be relocating to the triangle Motel mid-August. The rate here at cascade Village was negotiated to 92.33 per night with no taxes due to the length of our stay and is well below the Durango per Diem Max of 144 per night. If you could please reply if this is acceptable I would greatly appreciate it.

Thanks,

Elliott
